EMIOS

Partner to your sports club

We offer a close, lasting and visible sponsorship partnership to clubs in our region.

Sports Sponsorship Program

Who we are

Emios is the Luxembourg group bringing together Datacenter.eu, Mixvoip and Voxbi: infrastructure, telecommunications and software, each run by its own team. Since 2000, we've supported businesses with a close, personal service — the same closeness we want to bring to sports clubs across the region.

26 years
of expertise, uninterrupted since 2000

100+
specialists across the group

5,300+
business customers

4 countries
Luxembourg, Belgium, Germany, France

Why we get involved

Community
Local initiatives that bring people together and inspire

Young talent
Training, discipline and personal growth

Equity & inclusion
Sport accessible to everyone, regardless of means

Long-term commitment
Partnerships that last, not one-off deals

Our sponsorship packages

The package offered to each club is determined by its division and social media following, to ensure fair and proportionate visibility for every partnership.

Our values as a sponsor

All levels of sport
From amateur to professional clubs, we support sport in every form.

Priority to team sports
Football, basketball, volleyball, handball: we favor team sports, which embody our values of collaboration.

Local proximity
Clubs based in the regions where our customers and our teams live and work.

Long-term partnerships
A minimum 3-year commitment: not one-off sponsorship, but a relationship built to last.

Transparency
Direct dialogue with club leadership, with no intermediary.

How it works

1. We talk about your club
   Your needs, your values, your current visibility.
2. We determine the right package
   Emios sets the package (€200 to €600) based on your club's division and visibility.
3. The partnership begins
   Emios by your club's side, as soon as it's signed.
